From Comptroller, No 37/96 dt 10.3.20

Submits his report on the different claimants to the Vacant pension of Rs 305-1-2 drawn by late Puttu Parvathammanni of Chickballapur Tamil

The deceased pensioner was in receipt of a pension of Rs 305-1-2 & during her life time (in 20.6.18) she prayed that her pension should be continued to her grandson Chennannappaiya after her death.

The following petitioners claim the pension:

I st petitioner - Chennannappaiya

II nd —— = Anantharamaswami

III rd —— Charanappiah

According to Chief Commr's (Mr. Bowring) order dt 12.5.1868 the pension has to lapse to Govt.

The above order of lapse has been set aside by Sir James Gordon in his order dt 12.8.82 who observed "that Mr. Bowring's order that the Stipends held by females should lapse on their demise must however be considered as applying only to those cases in which Stipendiaries have no issue or heirs.

As per above G.O. and the Subsequent liberal policy of Govt enunciated in G.O. No C.1678 dt 29th october 1887 after the rendition

Miscellaneous Petition No. of 18-19

Chennannappia, minor by guardian Chikka Venkata-Lakshammanni. ..... Petitioner.

-vs-

Putta Parvathi Ammanni. ..... Opponent.

The petitioner above-named respectfully begs to state as follows:-

Anantaramaswamy
= Bachammanni
Paravatammanni.

Dodda Venkata Lakshammanni.		Putta Paravati-Ammanni Opponent, residing at Inamanchenahalli, Chikkaballapur Taluk.
Anantarama Swamy	Chikkavenkata Lakshammanni
Venkatanarayana Swamy.	Chennavenkatappiah. (Petr.)

1. As per Geneological Tress detailed above the petitioner Chennannappiah and the opponent Putta-parvathi Ammanni are members of the family of the - Poleygars of Chikkaballapur Samsthan.

2. The petitioner's grand mother Dodda Venkata-Lakshammanni, who died about 5 years ago, was during - her life time, drawing a political pension of Rs.150/- from the Government of His Highness The Maharaja of -

Mysore, which the opponent who is now about 85 years of age, was, like her sister, drawing a like pension of Rs. 150/-. Since the death of Dodda Venkata Lakshammanni, however instead of the pension she was enjoying being secured for the benefit of her heirs and descendants of whom the petitioner is the sole surviving representative, the opponent has been granted the same with the result that whereas one branch of the Poleygar family is left without any Political Allowance, the other is enjoying practically a double share.

3. The Opponent is an old woman of over 85 years of age, who has lost her eye-sight and is otherwise incapable of looking after and managing her own affairs.

4. One Shanbhogue Venkatarayappa of Doddayyal Gurki, Chikkaballapur Taluk, has managed to insinuate himself into the favours of the opponent and has in fact gained a complete mastry over her and her affairs. In consequence, it is he that is making the use of the name of the opponent and really enjoying the fruits of the pension drawin in her name and also the income of the other properties of the opponent.

5. Even if the petitioner be deemed not entitled entitled at present to any portion of the pension enjoyed by the opponent, it is extremely necessayy, desirable and expedient in the ends of justice that some measures should be adopted to safeguard the interests of the opponent during the life time of the petitioner after her.

6. The petitioner wherefore respectfully prays that Government may be pleased to adopt such measures as may be deemed conducive to preserve the Polegar pension for the purpose for which it is granted by Government.

The Government of His Highness The Maharaja of Mysore.

The humble memorial of Chennannappaiah, minor by his gardian Chikka Venkata Lakshmammanni, resident of Inminchenahalli of the Chikballapur Taluk, Kolar District.

Most respectfully showeth;-

Issued 13/12/18

1. That the memorialist is a member of the family of the Paligars of the late Chikballapur samsthan.

2. That after the death of Anantharamaswamy and his wives, his two daughters, shown in the accompanying geneological tree, namely Dodda VenkataLakshmammanni thē paternal grandmother of the mēmorialist, and Puttaparvathammanni were separately in receipt in equal shares of the poligar political pension which thēir fathēr was drawing.

3. That about five or six years ago the above named Dodda Venkata Lakshmammanni died leaving a daughter Chikka Venkata Lakshmammanni, the gardian of the mēmorialist and Anantharamaswamy, the memorialist's father.

4. That after the death of the said Dodda Venkata Lakshmammanni, her sistēr Puttaparvathammanni began to receive the full pension of 300 Rs while the memorialist and his father were left helpless.

5. That the said Puttaparvathammanni did not hitherto maintain the other members of thē family and continued to spend the amount of the pension at her will and pleasure.

6. That the said Puttaparvathammanni who is very old, has now consented to have the whole of the pension transferred to the name of the memorialist, as he is the next heir entitled to succeed to thē properties and pension of his great grand father Anantharamaswami.

7. That the said Puttaparvathammanni has also petitioned the Government requesting that the full amount of the pension, which she is drawing, may be transferred to the mēmorialist's name.

8. That by the step she has taken, the said Puttaparvathammanni has accelerated the succession, under the Hindu Law, of thē memorialist to the said pension.

9. That the memorialist respectfully prays that the Government may be pleased to transfer the whole of the pension referred to above to the name of the humble memorialist and to order the payment of the pension to him through his guardian who has been protecting him with a motherly lovē and care eversince his parents death.

That for this act of Kindness towards a destitute orphan thē memorialist shall in duty bound ever pray.

FROM

T. Satyaraj Chetty, Esq., B.A.,
~~M. N. KRISHNA RAO, ESQ., B.A.,~~
Offg. Comptroller to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

To

M. N. Krishna Rao, Esq., B.A.,
Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Financial Department.

SIR,

Adverting to your letter Fl.NO.6191/S&A 11-17-10 dated the 20th May 1919 forwarding the marginally noted petitions praying for the continuance of the vacant pension drawn by late Puttaparvathammanni of Chickballapur Pallegar Family for enquiry and report as to the title of the claimants, I have the honor to state that the Officer in charge, State Huzur Treasury, conducted the enquiry.

1. Chennappiah dated 6-12-1918
2. Charnappiah " 11-1-1919
3. -do- " 6-2-1919
4. Anantaramaswami " 8-2-1919
5. Charanappiah " 24-2-1919
6. Anantaramaswami " 24-2-1919

The relationship of the three claimants to Puttaparvathammanni is exhibited in the pedigree annexed to this letter. From this, it will be seen that, of the three claimants, Anantaramaswami and Charnappiah, though distant collaterals of Puttaparvathammanni, would have better claim to the pension of Puttaparvathammanni than the third claimant Chennappiah, if their claims were regulated by the Hindu Law of Inheritance, as the two former are the direct descendants in the kindred male line while Chennappiah is the grandson of the sister of the deceased pensioner, the latter of the two viz., Charnappiah having a preferential claim.

There

There, however, seems to be no necessity for considering the relationship of the claimants to the deceased pensioner for deciding their title to the claim as it has been ordered in Chief Commissioner's Notification dated 12th May 1868 that the pension granted to Parvathammanni should lapse to Government, the claims of all collaterals being ignored.

In this connection attention is solicited to this office letter No. 28 of 13th September 1918 reporting on the claims of Puttaparvathammanni for the transfer of her pension to Chennappiah, the grandson of her deceased sister, Dodda Venkatalakshmammanni and also to endorsement No.Fl 116/S&A 125-08 dated Bangalore, the 6th July 1909 granted by Government to Venkatalakshmammanni when she prayed for the transfer of her pension t her son, to the effect that there was no good reason to alter the order passed by the late Chief Commissioner in 1868.

I would also invite attention to endorsement granted to the same petitioner declining the transfer of her pension after the death to her grandsons (Vide Fl.No.1697/S&A 61-13-2, dated the 15th September 1913.).

The petitions received with your reference under reply are herewith returned as requested.

On the death of Anantarama-swamy the last male holder of the pension in 1842 without leaving any male issues, the pension drawn by him (Rs 203-6-2 since raised to Rs 305-1-2 in general revision) was first distributed among 9 female members of whom Pattaparvathiammanni now deceased was one of the recipients at Rs 15/- each, the remaining 8-6-2 having been allowed to lapse to Govt.

2. Subsequently on receipt of order dated 17-5-1868 further representation, the full pension of this Branch of the family was ordered to the surviving female members with the direction that on the death of the last survivor, the pension should lapse to Govt. The claims of all collaterals was also directed to be ignored.

3) Pattaparvathiammanni, the last enjoyer of the pension having died, the disposal of the vacant pension has come up for consideration of Govt.
